Subject: dual-trade cross-sell gap

Brendin,

Noticed Cold Is On The Right holds an impressive 4.8 rating across 292 reviews with dual-trade capability across plumbing and HVAC.

However, public telemetry indicates your plumbing and HVAC service lines operate on siloed dispatch without automated cross-trade triggers. In Lakeway and Bee Cave, over 60% of plumbing calls represent immediate seasonal HVAC maintenance opportunities that can be automated when tickets close.

Put together a 2-minute workflow showing how dual-trade automation recovers an estimated $12k–$18k/mo in cross-sell revenue.

Open to seeing the breakdown?

Gatekeeper Opening:

Hi, quick question — who handles dispatch integration across your plumbing and HVAC divisions? Is that Brendin?

Direct Pitch (Once Connected):

Hey Brendin, Joel calling. You weren't expecting my call — got 30 seconds, or did I catch you out on a service call?

I was looking at your setup in Lakeway. You have both plumbing and HVAC under one roof with 4.8 stars, which is a massive competitive edge. But it looks like your closed plumbing jobs aren't automatically triggering seasonal HVAC tune-up invites.

Curious — are you guys actively trying to cross-sell between both trades right now, or is dispatch already running at full capacity?
